

'The Last Laugh' apple cider 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $80
Cellar door: $100

Appearance: Pale straw with fine bead
Aroma: Apple skin
Palate: Faint apple strudel, spice with a balanced sweet fruit finish
Food ideas: Mortadella, pork belly, Gouda cheese, pickles, curries
Cellaring potential: ± 4 years
Alc/Vol: 5.0%

Using our home-grown heritage cider apples, this medium sweet cider is a blend of Kingston Black, Improved Foxwelp, Somerset Redstreak, as well as a touch of Pink Lady, Sweet Tango and Jazz apples. With real tree-ripened apple character this cider is the perfect drink to enjoy with Summer parties. Turn up the music!

Reserve Cuvée – Méthode Traditionnelle 2011

BOOZY ROO Price: $56
Cellar door: $70

Appearance: Golden yellow with very pale hints of orange and a fine bead
Aroma: Strawberry, subtle cracked yeast
Palate: Red berries, mild acidity, creamy soft brioche finish
Food ideas: Oysters, eggs benedict, hard mature cheese, rhubarb desserts
Cellaring potential: ± 10 years
Alc/Vol: 11.0%

Eleven-years-old and it's radiant!! Showing off its luscious body and aromas, this sparkling has been developing in the background for nearly 10 years, and it shows. A French-style bubble with balanced acidity and flavour from the classic blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier – three equal parts. Is there a better way to celebrate the festive season than to pop open a vintage Sparkling?

Riesling 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $20
Cellar door: $25

Appearance: Pale yellow with hints of green
Aroma: Jasmine flower, lime
Palate: Elegant with vibrant citrus peel, tight acidity, chalk and green apple finish
Food ideas: Thai food, garlic prawns, steamed mussels, Christmas glazed ham
Cellaring potential: ± 9 years
Alc/Vol: 11.9%

AWARD-WINNER! We have always been pleased with the newest variety in our range but extra pleased the judges at several wine shows agree (National Cool Climate Wine Show, Orange Wine Show). This silver (and bronze) winner is a cracker on its own, with a cheese platter on the deck with some friends or even as a palate cleanser between meals.

Sauvignon Blanc 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $24

Cellar door: $30

Appearance: Very pale straw with light green rim

Aroma: Passionfruit, citrus

Palate: Bright, fresh white peach, nectarine with a crisp finish

Food ideas: Seafood salad, Thai fish cakes, pea soup, grilled chicken

Cellaring potential: ± 3 years

Alc/Vol: 12.5%

An in-house favourite, who else agrees the Savvy B is a go-to after a hard day's work at the office?

The crisp zesty mouthfeel and generous lashings of acidity and flavour makes for an easy and comforting pick-me-up on any given day.

Chardonnay 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $32

Cellar door: $40

Appearance: Pale gold

Aroma: Melons, stone fruits

Palate: Elegant and balanced with apricot and apple finish

Food ideas: Poached salmon with buttery sauce, Caesar salad, sushi, sashimi

Cellaring potential: ± 15 years

Alc/Vol: 12.7%

A classy and sassy person deserves a classy and sassy wine, and this lightly oaked Chardonnay is hard to beat. The cool, slow-ripening environment of Borrodell is ideal conditions to bring out spectacular flavours and aromas in this variety. A real fruit salad in a glass!

Gewürztraminer 2018

BOOZY ROO Price: $20

Cellar door: $25

Appearance: Very pale yellow

Aroma: Rose petal

Palate: Rose water with musk and a lychee fruit finish

Food ideas: Gruyère, poached quince, cured meats, spicy Thai curries

Cellaring potential: ± 10 years

Alc/Vol: 13%

A consistent award winner, including Best Alternate White in Australia, and always highly ranked in Australia's wine bible – Halliday – our gewurz is in a class of its own. Very drinkable now but did you know, if you stash a few away for several years (but can you actually resist?), that you will be generously rewarded with a luscious fuller body and exquisite honey nectar flavours?

'Towac Trilogy', white field blend 2020

BOOZY ROO Price: $20

Cellar door: $25

Appearance: Blushing pink

Aroma: Musk

Palate: Rose petal with honeydew melon and semi-sweet finish

Food ideas: kingfish sashimi, taramasalata, haloumi

Cellaring potential: ± 3 years

Alc/Vol: 12.5%

As multiple worlds collide the magic of synergy creates something no-one really thought was possible. Our new blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay and Riesling is one such example. Considering all three varieties are complex enough on their own, together they dance a sultry tango which will enliven your next garden party. A real crowd pleaser!

Rosé 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $18

Cellar door: $22

Appearance: Ocean trout pink

Aroma: Strawberry leaf

Palate: Red berries with flecks of white pepper and a cream finish

Food ideas: Prawn cocktail, tapas, char-grilled vegetables

Cellaring potential: ± 5 years

Alc/Vol: 12.2%

This crisp, friendly wine blended with Pinot Noir is a nod to the dry styles of the French Riviera. Be carried away on a breezy summer cloud with this dry, textural rosé.

'Lolly Legs' Moscato 2020

BOOZY ROO Price: $24

Cellar door: $30

Appearance: Pale pink with honeydew rim

Aroma: Sweet melons

Palate: Floral honeysuckle notes with a balanced candied raspberry finish

Food ideas: Fruit salad, panna cotta, sorbets

Cellaring potential: ± 4 years

Alc/Vol: 7.5%

A sublime Moscato that really needs to be tasted to be believed. The secret is the gewürztraminer variety crushed to make this fruit-forward, flamboyant and, frankly, delicious style. If you're not already a Moscato lover, you certainly will be after experiencing the beauty of this one.

'Enthusiasm' Pinot Noir 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $36

Cellar door: $45

Appearance: Vibrant cherry red

Aroma: Red fruits

Palate: Cherry, liquorice spice, chocolate, soft tannins and a silky bright finish

Food ideas: Roasted duck, mushroom pâté, slow roasted lamb

Cellaring potential: ± 15 years

Alc/Vol: 12.5%

Displaying all the hallmarks of a bumper year with true varietal characteristics, this Pinot Noir ticks all the boxes, soft silky tannins, vibrant spice from French oak and the promise that with a bit of age, you will be generously rewarded.

'With Great Satisfaction, Boz' Pinot Meunier 2021

BOOZY ROO Price: $44

Cellar door: $55

Appearance: Light burgundy

Aroma: Rose, petrichor

Palate: Plum, pomegranate, herbaceous, strawberry fruit, creamy oak, fresh and fun

Food ideas: Middle Eastern spice dishes, grilled vegetables, mushrooms, Baba Ganoush

Cellaring potential: ± 10 years

Alc/Vol: 12.2%

A very rare gem. This variety is seldom seen outside of a sparkling bottle, where it would be blended with its mates Pinot Noir and Chardonnay to make a sensational Champagne. This drop however is proof that it can certainly stand on its own two feet. A spectacular treat that marries beautifully with all sorts of flavoursome food. A must-try!

Cherry Liqueur 2015

BOOZY ROO Price: $20

Cellar door: $25

Appearance: Ruby red

Aroma: Sour cherry

Palate: Light, bouncy, cherry stem, rich finish

Food ideas: sweet pancakes, cheese platters, ice-cream

Cellaring potential: ± 15 years

Alc/Vol: 11.5%

This liqueur is not what you're expecting. The low alcohol contributes to the light body and softness, with real cherry flavours – no sickly syrupy sweetness here. This adults-only fortified cherry juice has extra health benefits – it's jam-packed with antioxidants.

Cherry Port 2010

BOOZY ROO Price: $32

Cellar door: $40

Appearance: Brick red

Aroma: Red fruits, cherry ripe

Palate: Almond, sultana, spice with fine silky texture and lingering finish

Food ideas: Stilton cheese, charcuterie boards, olives, chocolate-covered strawberries

Cellaring potential: ± 15 years

Alc/Vol: 18%

Having fermented and aged in French oak for four years, this spicy little number has a smooth mouthfeel and goes down a treat with Black Forrest cake, or even just a place by the fireside on a shaggy rug.